PROTOCOL OF INTENTION BETWEEN
THE FACULTY OF PHILOLOGY AND THE FACULTY OF ORIENTAL STUDIES AT ST. PETERSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY AND THE FACULTY OF ARTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF OSLO

The Faculty of Philology and the Faculty of Oriental Studies at St. Petersburg State University and the Faculty of Arts at the University of Oslo, who wish to establish co-operative relations between the three faculties within the existing agreement on co-operation between the Universities of St. Petersburg and Oslo, hereby declare their intention to develop academic and cultural exchange between the institutions through mutual assistance in the areas of education and research.

It is understood that the co-operation will include, although not be limited to, such activities and programmes as:

- exchange visits by members of staff
- student (undergraduate and graduate) exchanges
- joint research activities and publishing
- network building
- exchange of academic materials and other information

It is also understood that this co-operation shall include activities and scholars attached to The Norwegian University Center in St. Petersburg. The Center is established by the Universities of Bergen, Oslo and Tromsø and is officially registered as a representative office of the University of Oslo and administered by the Faculty of Arts.

It is understood that more specific programmes will be planned and implemented by the departments and faculties involved.
