

AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION

BETWEEN

CAPITAL NORMAL UNIVERSITY

AND

ST. PETERSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY

In order to enhance relations and friendship between the two universities and develop academic and cultural exchange in the areas of education, research and related activities, Capital Normal University and St. Petersburg State University agree to cooperate and work together towards the internationalization of higher education.

The areas of cooperation will include any program offered at each university, which is desirable and feasible for the achievement of these objectives. Specific programs, however, shall be subject to the availability of funds and the mutual agreement of both universities. Such programs may include:

- Exchange of faculty members
- Exchange of students
- Joint research projects
- Joint conferences
- Joint establishment of Confucius Institute

The terms of such mutual exchange and cooperation shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing signed by the appropriate authorities of both Universities prior to the implementation of any particular program or activity. Such letters of agreement will become an integral part of this general agreement of cooperation.

This agreement will come into force on the date of its signature by both parties and will be valid without time limitation. This agreement may be amended by mutual agreement of both institutions. This agreement may be terminated by either institution at any time provided that the terminating institution gives written notice of intention to terminate at least six months prior to termination.
