

AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION BETWEEN QINDAO BINHAI UNIVERSITY AND
THE SAINT-PETERSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY
School of International Relations

Qingdao Binhai University, represented by its rector and the Saint-Petersburg State University, School of International Relations, represented by its Dean, agree in the following:

Article One: Programs

Program I Student Exchange

1. The program aims at supplying to the students from Party A with an opportunity to achieve the abilities of listening comprehension, speaking, reading comprehension, writing, and translating in Russian and to be well acknowledged in the fields of Russian history, culture, and trade and vice versa to the students from Party B;
2. The 2 parties exchange students in equal or nearly equal quantity with all the expenses of tuition and accommodation free of charge on the other side in case that all such costs are paid at home, and that of the textbooks, food, trips, insurance premium and other services for the students' account. Both parties will provide short distance transportation service from airport or railway station to school for the students from the other party and help them to adapt to the new conditions. The students will stay abroad for half a school year or one school year with their credits gained at home admitted by the other party. Both of the 2 parties will provide the exchanged students with a specially designed and acceptable teaching program in reference to that of the other party.
3. In view of a long-term co-operation, the quantity exchanged per lot is made temporarily as many as _____ students, the total number of the exchanged students will be balanced in the end of the validity of the agreement by making up in next lot the difference in the former.
4. The students exchanged will be enrolled by each other party every September or January.
5. The conditions for accommodation: Party A provides for the students of Party B rooms each for 2 Russians with 2 Chinese native roommates, furnished with a toilet, a shower, a writing-table, and other necessary facilities while Party B provides for the students of Party A rooms each for 2 or 3 to live in and furnished with a writing-table, a TV-set and other necessary facilities, with accessible kitchen, refrigerator, bathroom and toilet in the building.
6. Exit and entrance: both of the 2 parties must provide for the candidates to be exchanged necessary documents and help them to clear customs for exit and entrance in time.
7. The exchanged students enjoy equal rights to the fulltime students and share equal obedience to the regulations of the other party and the domestic laws of the other party's country.

Program II Exchange of Visiting Scholars

1. Both parties carry out a program of exchanging visiting scholars in the purpose of strengthening the academic exchange and co-operation, promoting each other the

- development in education, and pushing forward the friendship between the 2 schools;
2. Selected and well-established scholars from both of the 2 parties will be sent with the exchanged students to the other party to teach and do some research work as requested, and be paid consequently for their work at a rate agreed upon by both parties;
 3. One scholar will be sent to each other party each time;
 4. The working period for a visiting scholar lasts for half a school year or a full school year;
 5. All the expenses for the trip will be undertaken by the party from which the visiting scholar is sent, while the accommodation is given free by the other party.

Article Two: The programs will be organized and carried out by the Bureau of Foreign Affairs of Party A and the Foreign Department of Party B.

Article Three: For any unsettled problems, attachments to this agreement is to be made between the 2 parties; and any amendment to the agreement can only be made in writing and when it is agreed upon by both parties.

Article Four: Disputes, if any, will be settled according to the relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China and of the Russian Federation.

Article Five: The agreement will come into effect since the day of signature.

Article Six: The agreement is to be made in duplicate in English languages.

Party A
Qingdao Binhai University

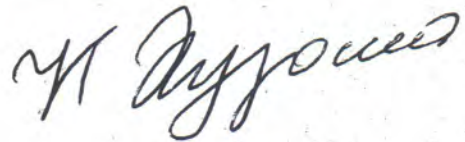

Handwritten signature in Chinese characters: 韩子希

Date 2006.10.19

Party B

The Dean of the School of International Relations of Saint-Petersburg State University

Date 28.03.2007

Letter of Intention between Qindao Binhai University and St. Petersburg State University on Education Cooperation

Date of issue _____

In order to promote our friendship, cooperation and communication, with St. Petersburg State University, enhance the reputation of both universities, share intelligence resources with each other, foster talented people together, we intend to sign a letter of intention on cooperation in the field of education with St. Petersburg State University on the base of mutual benefit and mutual development.

We intend to discuss the possible cooperation with St. Petersburg State University in the following aspects:

- Co-operation in academic, theoretical and practical research;
- Strengthening the exchange of staff and providing opportunities for the leaders and teachers on both side to visit each other;
- Discussion on short-term and long-term teacher training;
- Promoting the exchange of students;
- Discussing about the recognition of credits;
- Co-education in academic, undergraduate and postgraduate courses;
- Cooperation in undergraduate courses, such as "2+2" and "3+1" courses;
- Exchange in academic information, publication and so on;
- Scholarship awarding to the excellent students on both sides;
- Establishment of liaison committee to deal with daily exchange and cooperation.

The letter is in duplicate (both English and Chinese each), and each party keeps one copy.

Signature(Party A) _____

October 19, 2006

Signature(Party B) _____

A handwritten signature in cursive script, likely belonging to a representative of St. Petersburg State University.

October 19, 2006