jointly referred to as "the partners"

Given the French Education Code,

Given the deliberation of the Executive Board of Université de Strasbourg dated the January 31, 2017,

Given the deliberation of the Council of Sciences Po Strasbourg dated the 17/02/2021.

Sciences Po Strasbourg of Université de Strasbourg,

Saint-Petersburg University

agree to renew the agreement for student exchange signed in 2016 in order to provide students with the opportunity to take advantage of the undergraduate study programs offered by both universities in the fields of Politics and International Relations studies.

Article 1: Definitions

The present agreement designates "the partners" as Sciences Po Strasbourg of Université de Strasbourg and Saint-Petersburg University (acting for School of International Relations).

The university that sends students to the partner institution will be designated as the "home university", and the university that receives these students will be designated as the "host university".

Article 2: Exchange procedure

Level and selection of students who participate in the exchange program:

Exchange students from Saint-Petersburg University studying in the field of International Relations shall have completed at least two (2) years of studies when entering Université de Strasbourg.

Exchange students from Sciences Po Strasbourg of Université de Strasbourg shall have completed at least two (2) years of studies when entering Partner University.

In addition, exchange students must have acquired the necessary language skills to pursue their study program.

The required level of language skills, as described in the "European Language Portfolio" ¹ from the Council of Europe, for candidates coming to Université de Strasbourg as part of this exchange program is level B1. Level B2 is highly recommended for students coming to take classes taught in French.

http://www.coe.int/t/dg4/education/elp/elp-reg/Source/assessment_grid/assessment_grid_english.pdf

Students attach to their application file, one of the following certificates attesting to their level:

Common European Framework of Reference for Languages	DELF - DALF (Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française - Diplôme Approfondi en Langue Française)	TCF (Test de Connaissance du Français)	TEF (Test d'Évaluation de Français)	between 330 and 550 hours of learning
Council of Europe		Level 3 (300 - 399)	Level 3 (361-540)	Certificate established by a professor from the partner university
Level B1	Level B1	Validity : 2 years	Validity : 1 year

Students with French skills below B1 but with B2 English skills can be accepted at Sciences Po Strasbourg provided they take classes in English only. Students wishing to take classes in English should have a B2 level certificate in English.

For candidates coming to Saint-Petersburg University as part of this exchange program to take courses taught in Russian level B2 of the Russian language proficiency is required. To take courses taught in English students should provide a certificate of English language proficiency at level B2. Students applying for full-time Russian language course don't have to provide a language certificate.

Each host institution shall make the final decision to accept the candidates selected by the home institution.

Exchange period:

The length of the exchange can be either one semester or one university year.

Number of exchange program participants:

For the entire duration of this agreement, Saint-Petersburg University shall send per year up to 3 students for a whole academic year or 6 students for a semester to Sciences Po Strasbourg of Université de Strasbourg, unless the number is changed by mutual agreement.

Likewise, Sciences Po Strasbourg of Université de Strasbourg shall send per year up to 3 students for a whole academic year or 6 students for a semester to Saint-Petersburg University.

An exchange student for one university year is the equivalent to two exchange students for one semester (one exchange student for one year = two students per semester).

Registration:

Students participating in this exchange program must register and pay registration fees at their home university. They are exempt from paying registration fees in the host university, where they will be registered as international exchange students. The exchange students will receive a student card by the host university.

Educational validation:

The academic advisors (see article 3) shall exchange all relevant information about the courses offered in their respective universities before the application phase. They shall establish, by mutual agreement, a provisional learning agreement with each student applying in this exchange program.

Upon arrival in the host institution, the student will contact the academic advisor of the host University, in order to confirm his/her choice of course. In the case of modifications of the study program or schedule conflicts, the academic advisor of the host University shall inform its counterpart in the home University, so that in the two weeks following the beginning of the course, they have to come to a final learning agreement with the student. The final learning agreement, duly signed by both partners' academic advisors, is communicated to the mobility coordinators of the two institutions,

The host university shall transmit the grades of the student hosted to the home university at the end of each semester as well as any additional information necessary to transpose these grades to the home university's grading system.

Degrees:

Exchange students shall continue to be candidates for a degree in their home institution and shall not request a degree in the host university.

Obligations of both partners towards the students they send in the frame of this exchange program (home university):

- recruit, select and prepare students who will participate in the exchange program;
- ensure that the students fulfill the requirements for admission in the host institution;
- transfer the applications of the selected candidates according to the instructions of the host university;
- register their own students in their university during the exchange program period.

Obligations of both partners towards the students they receive in the frame of this exchange program (host university):

- inform the accepted students about the visa application procedure ²;
- exempt the exchange students from all registration fees;
- host and orient the exchange students;
- help the exchange students find housing;
- provide support and academic advice to the exchange students;

² International students coming to Université de Strasbourg, from some countries, must register on the website <http://www.campusfrance.org> in order to apply for a student visa.

- transmit a transcript of the hosted student's grades to the academic advisor and the home university's student exchange administration : Sciences Po Strasbourg International Office for Université de Strasbourg and International Academic Cooperation Department for Saint-Petersburg University.

Obligations of the students participating in the exchange program:

- obtain a visa, if needed;
- pay tuition fees at their home institution before the beginning of the exchange period;
- respect the rules and regulations of the host institution;
- pay for room and board during the exchange period;
- have the required insurance coverage and pay eventual medical costs³ and provide proof of civil liability insurance.

Article 3: Supervision of exchanges

The students' academic advisors for the exchange program shall be:

The partners will be informed of any change of advisor while this Agreement is valid.

The academic advisors will provide an assessment of the exchange program within the six (6) months prior to the termination of this Agreement. This assessment will be taken into account in the decision to prosecute or not the cooperation.

Article 4 : Applicable law and settlement of disputes

In case of difficulties on the interpretation or execution of this Agreement, the parties shall attempt to resolve their dispute amicably. Recourse to a jurisdiction will only as a last resort, after exhausting all other remedies. In this case, the conflict shall be brought before the French court.

Article 5: Duration and validity of the Agreement

This agreement has been drawn up in eight (8) original copies, four (4) in French and four (4) in English, both texts being equally authentic.

It shall go into effect from the date of the signature by both partners and remain valid for five (5) years.

It may be renewed only if the competent authorities of each partner once again approve it.

A partner requesting to modify or terminate this agreement must inform the other partner in writing six (6) months beforehand. In order to be valid, both partners must validate changes by means of an amendment.

In case of termination of the agreement both partners must fulfill their commitments until the end of the academic year in progress.

Both partners ensure that students who have started their academic program under this agreement at the termination or expiry date, will finish their program under the same framework.
