Preamble

The aforementioned parties,

Recalling that the HCCH works towards the progressive unification of the rules of private international law;

Underlining that the HCCH seeks to pursue this mandate through increasing the global reach of its instruments;

Observing that the growth of the HCCH reflects the increasing universality of the Organisation, and thus the need to strive to make both its normative and non-normative output relevant to an increasingly globalised world;

Recognising that the limited size and capacity of the HCCH Permanent Bureau¹ call for the development of a network of academic institutions that share a commitment to supporting the HCCH Permanent Bureau in fulfilling its mandate;

Encouraging engagement with local and regional experts to participate in, and support the necessary research of, the HCCH and its Permanent Bureau, which can in turn serve to strengthen the work of the Organisation, result in high-level educational outcomes and expand the networks of all connected institutions;

With a view to advancing the study and research of the current and future work of the HCCH, which in turn will provide opportunities to SPbU and its students to contribute to the work of the HCCH;

intend to cooperate on topics that are relevant to the mandate of the HCCH and have agreed upon the following provisions:

Throughout this agreement, references to the HCCH Permanent Bureau include the office of the Permanent Bureau in The Hague (headquarters), as well as its Regional Offices.

Agreement

Article 1 - Activities

- 1.1. The parties shall conduct activities relevant to the work of the HCCH, to be organised by the faculty and students of SPbU.
- 1.2. Activities covered by this Agreement may include:
